

Available Mitigation Banks

as of September 2011

It should be noted that each watershed depicted represents the Federal bank service areas within the regulatory boundaries of the Chicago District. There are some counties that require compensatory mitigation be completed within their jurisdictional borders. We recommend that you check your local regulations regarding mitigation requirements as part of your planning efforts.

US Army Corps of Engineers®
Chicago District